Spring/Summer

Soft colours, flexible shapes and summery textures define the new SS27 season at Emily & Noah.

The Spring/Summer 2027 collection from Emily & Noah feels like the first warm day after a long winter: light, colourful and full of anticipation. Relaxed silhouettes meet clean everyday shapes, gentle tones meet expressive statement pieces. Sometimes casual, sometimes playful, sometimes surprisingly elegant. This new world of bags brings exactly the lightness we long for in summer. For specialist retail, Emily & Noah offers a versatile range that combines familiar shapes with fresh highlights. Every line invites discovery, every colour sets its own accent. The sales floor becomes a vibrant summer world: fresh, inspiring and full of special favourites that catch the eye straight away.

A Wealth of Design.

The collection thrives on lovingly considered details and strong ideas. Decorative chains, tassels, cords, braided handles and charming pendants give each line a character all of its own, without ever overloading the collection. Some styles are calm and elegant, others cheeky and playful. Together they create a varied, unmistakable signature. Punched patterns, high-contrast edges and bold metal elements bring tension to the design. Gathered sections and sweeping contours make the bags look soft and animated. They create movement and give the silhouettes a relaxed, modern presence. Seasonal lettering such as “Summer”, striking stripes and graphic black-and-white patterns draw the eye. A particular highlight is the sculptural lips clutch. Its glossy surface, vivid colours and eye-catching shape make it a genuine feel-good piece. It brings humour, glamour and a small dose of extravagance to the collection – and guaranteed attention in the shop window.

A Wealth of Shapes.

From the compact shoulder bag to the generous shopper, the new SS27 collection accompanies its wearers through very different moments. It suits a quick stroll through town just as well as a day at the office, a visit to a café or a spontaneous weekend trip. Softly falling hobo bags and easy bucket shapes nestle comfortably against the body. They feel uncomplicated, soft and relaxed, and are made for long, sunny days. Structured top-handle bags, trapeze styles and clean flap bags bring clarity to the look with their graphic design language and set elegant, self-assured accents. Small shoulder bags and mini styles deliver targeted fashion highlights. The result is a lively mix of reliable favourite shapes, modern classics and special one-offs with that irresistible must-have moment.

A Wealth of Colour.

The season's colour palette feels like a summer day in many shades. Cream, ecru, sand, beige, taupe, camel and cognac form a calm, natural base. They radiate warmth and combine in countless ways. Black and dark brown provide clear contrast and give the collection an urban depth. Butter yellow, light blue, rosé and soft green bring lightness and freshness into play. The tones recall lemon sorbet, blue skies, flower petals and new greenery. They feel gentle, modern and easy to wear – a little shot of colour for every day. Vivid pink and bright red send self-assured signals. They come into their own above all on the lips clutches, creating luminous focal points. Floral designs, stripes, checks and multicoloured woven patterns expand the palette with vibrant summer imagery and create a cheerful, surprising diversity.

A Wealth of Materials.

The materials, too, tell of summer. Smooth, softly grained and boldly textured surfaces alternate and make every style tangible in its own way. This gives the collection a versatile, lively and premium feel. Classic leather looks meet braided, woven and crocheted structures. They recall sunny days, airy clothing and relaxed hours outdoors. Perforated panels, mesh-like structures and relief patterns bring depth to the designs and make even quiet colours look exciting. Textile finishes, striped and checked weaves as well as styles in straw and bast effects intensify the feeling of summer and holidays. They look natural, light and easy, and instantly create a desire for warm days in the city, by the water or on the road. A glossy counterpoint comes from the patent finishes of the lips clutches. They deliberately break with the soft, natural material world and bring an extra dose of shine, colour and energy to the season.
